Brighton Publishing releases “The Most Interesting Man You Have Never Met” from author Tom West

“Author Tom West hits the mark with this incredible story of a Man’s Life”

MESA (AZ)—Brighton Publishing proudly announces the eBook release of “The Most Interesting Man You Have Never Met” from author Tom West. The eBook is now available from eBook vendors including Amazon, Barnes & Noble and other leading book retailers. The print format is scheduled for an early spring release and will be distributed by Ingram Content Group, the largest wholesale book distributor in the world.

Synopsis: Join the author as he recounts his fascinating life. A risk taker, entrepreneur, steadfast banker, blackjack dealer and a solid government bureaucrat. The careers zig and zag. As a young man, he works with his father as a true American cowboy in Texas. In fact, on a trip to Los Angeles to visit family, he is repeatedly mistaken for a famous actor and asked for his autograph. As a Las Vegas blackjack dealer, we find him meeting one celebrity after another. Most are seeking to maintain anonymity and he uses his charisma and humor to ensure they have a quiet, uninterrupted time at his table.

Tom started writing about his life experiences, although not diligently, shortly after retiring. It started as his history to pass onto his family. From his early days in Southwestern Oklahoma where he was born during World War II, to his retirement years, he has written about the many things he has done and seen, and the numerous people he met along the way. Those who heard him talk about his life over the years have told him you are a very interesting person and should write a book. The title suggested was “The most interesting person you have never met.”

Tom also co-authored a book for the US Government published by the Washington National Press. And, he wrote a speech for a US Senator given to a joint session of Congress for which Tom received a Congressional Commendation signed by the then President.

“Author Tom West hits the mark with this incredible story of a man’s life that will keep you eagerly turning one page after another” said Brighton Publishing.

Married for 39 years, Tom and his wife have a very active life style with a bass boat, motorcycle, and roadster sports car. And of course, lots of traveling.

Now at 75-years-old, Tom has finished telling his story for all to enjoy. He states “my life has and is still interesting and exciting every day.”
